October 2014

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in becoming a member of the Grant's Braes School team, We currently have two positions available in the junior area of our school. At least one position will be in a Year 0/1 class. These positions will commence on 28 January 2015 with 29th January being our first onsite day.

Please indicate in your application letter the positions you wish to be considered for. If you wish to only be considered for the permanent position please state this otherwise we will consider your application is for both.

These positions are unlikely to be suitable for a first year teacher.

Background to vacancy

Grant's Braes opened its 9th classroom mid 2014 and due to healthy enrollment numbers will be starting 2015 with nine classrooms. We are therefore offering one permanent position and one fixed term position for 2015

Please find enclosed:

- A school description
- A job description
- A person specification
- An appointment timeline
- An application form

Please note that receipt of applications close at

1pm, Monday 3rd November

Please forward applications to:
